

Smith+Nephew at a glance

100

Smith+Nephew is a diversified advanced medical technology company that designs and makes technology that takes the limits off living. We do this in more than 100 countries around the word.

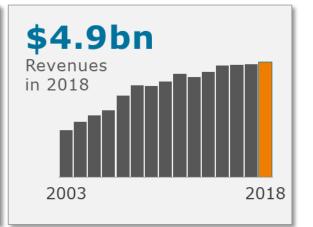

Leading positions in:

Sports Medicine

Orthopaedic
Reconstruction

Advanced Wound Mgmt

17,500

We have more than 17,500 employees around the world.

FTSE100

A constituent of the UK's FTSE100, our shares are traded in London and New York.

Our history

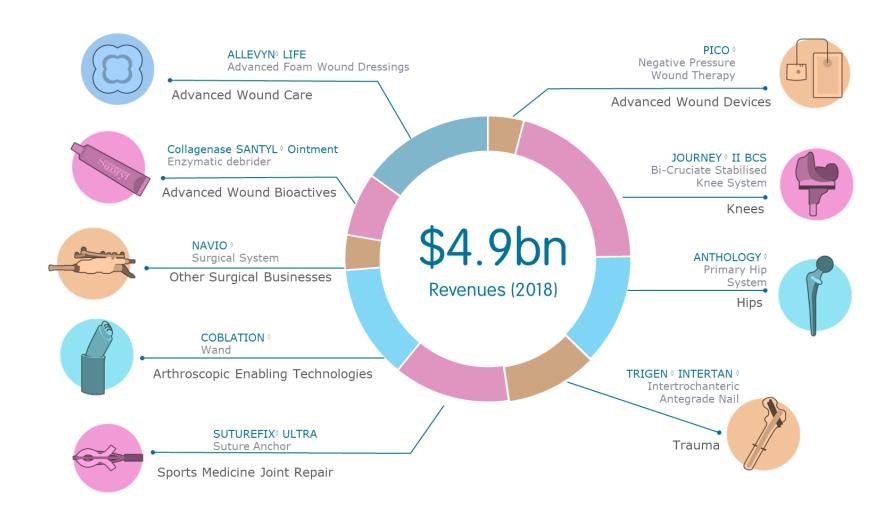

1914 1896 1856 days after the outbreak of WW1, FROM Thomas James Smith Horatio Nelson Smith entered we received an order to provide opened a chemist shop in Hull, UK and into a partnership with his uncle surgical and field dressing supplies develops a new method for refining cod liver oil forming TJ Smith & Nephew 1856 to the French army within 5 months OPEN ! During WW1, staff grew 1937 from 50 to 1,200 1986 we were listed on the key acquisitions of Richards Medical Company in London stock exchange Memphis, specialists in orthopaedic products and DYONICS. an arthroscopy specialists based in Andover 1928 1953 1995 we produced an experimental we developed a special low-temperature plaster for the Everest acquired Acufex Microsurgical bandage - ElastoplastTM climbers on the 1953 expedition. It enabled them to send back Inc, making us a market leader their camera films, sealed and airtight! This same research led in arthroscopic surgical devices to the development of important industrial products 2001 we were listed on the New York Stock Exchange and in 2001 OXINIUM[◊], a new material became a constituent member that improves performance of the UK FTSE-100 index and increases the service life of total joint replacement 2013 systems, first introduced Acquired Arthrocare Corp. to expand our JOURNEY™ II BCS sets a new standard in PICO [♦], the first pocket-sized, sports medicine portfolio knee implant performance, designed to single-use system, revolutionizes the negative empower patients to return to an active lifestyle pressure wound therapy market 16,000+Over We have been pioneering health solutions since TODAY We are proud of what we do and value our 1856 and now have a presence in over 100 countries 16,000 employees who make this possible

°Trademark of Smith & Nephew ©2019 Smith & Nephew

Our business

Life Unlimited